"I AM Jesus the Nazorean whom you are persecuting."

Yesterday at Mass during the homily Father Bob broke open the first reading from Acts about the conversion of Saint Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles.

Paul was rounding up Christians and turning them over to the authorities to be imprisoned. On the road to Damascus Paul was blinded by a great light from the sky. Paul heard a voice say, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?"

Paul asked, "Who are you, sir?" The voice said, "I AM Jesus the Nazorean whom you are persecuting."

After Paul realized he was hurting Jesus, the Son of God, he changed his ways and became a great teacher and led thousands of people to Christ.

The lesson for us is that when we hurt each other we are hurting Jesus. Let us, instead, love one another.
